

Rotarians of Yesteryears To Gather Tonight

Stories of earlier days in Torrance will be swapped and old-time friendships renewed tonight as many former members of the Torrance Rotary Club gather at the Legion clubhouse to celebrate the 17th anniversary of the club's founding, Nov. 6, 1924.

James B. Hines, former Torrance banker now residing in San Diego, as the club's first president heads the list of out-of-town guests. Others who have indicated their intention of being present include Perry G. Briney, George Fay, Tom Foley, James Howe, Kenneth Hughes, Warren Johnston, W. Harold Kingsley, Herb Summers, Wilfred Teal, Cal Alverson, E. Merle Johnson, L. H. June, Guy A. Kelley, L. B. Kelsey, W. Rufus Page, R. R. Smith, B. J. Scott, James Yoshihori, Ben Lingenfelter and Carl Patton.

Carl L. Hyde will give a brief history of the club and act as toastmaster, in calling on a number of the old-timers, who for various reasons have found it necessary to discontinue their memberships.

James Lynch, proprietor of the Torrance Hotel, will be inducted as a new member. It was announced by B. C. Buxton, club president who sponsored the idea of the old-timers' reunion. All past-presidents of the club will assist Buxton in greeting former members.

1737 Prophecy of Aerial Warfare Says Britain Will Win

In a recent edition of the Coleraine (Ireland) Chronicle, an 18th Century prophecy of the present war was published, according to Dr. Katherine F. Slekmann of 1843 El Prado, who read of it in a Los Gatos newspaper—the formerly lived there. Gray's "Luna Habitabilis," published in 1737, had this to say: "The time will come, when thou shalt lift thine eyes

To watch a long-drawn battle in the skies, While aged peasants, too amazed for words,

Stare at the flying fleets of wondrous birds, England, so long the mistress of the sea,

Where winds and waves confess her sovereignty, Her ancient triumphs yet on high shall bear,

And reign, the sovereign of the conquered air."

Dog Believed Hunting Master Who Is In Torrance Hospital

Believed to have wandered away in search of his master, Roy Winters, who entered Torrance Memorial hospital Oct. 29 for an operation, "Rusty," a cocker spaniel is being sought by Mrs. Rose Winters of 1210 El Prado. The dog, who is rust-colored, as his name implies, may be detained by some one and Mrs. Winters offers a liberal reward for information leading to his return.
